MEDICAL SECOND OPINION SERVICE

As a member of Golsure Personal you are eligible for a benefit that will give you an additional level of health protection. Our unique Medical Second Opinion Service gives all members of Golsure Personal access to some of the top medical specialists around the world who can confirm a diagnosis and treatment or suggest alternative forms of treatments. As a Golsure Personal member, our service will provide you with a Medical Second opinion for any new medical condition that is diagnosed by a consultant while your Golsure cover is in force.

While in many cases, the Medical Second Opinion will confirm your diagnosis or suggest only minor changes to your treatment strategy, you will have the reassurance that the diagnosis and treatment being proposed is not only correct but we will be verified as correct by medical specialists recognised as international authorities in their field.

How it works?

The Medical Second Opinion service is made possible through technology called Telemedicine. Telemedicine is a system through which medical files are transmitted instantly around the world using innovative and sophisticated communication technologies, including medical internet applications. This enables medical specialists thousands of miles away at world renowned hospital to review your medical information and provide a high quality Medical Second Opinion without you having to leave your home.

What if I want to avail of this service?

Once you have decided to use the Medical Second opinion service, you should contact the Second opinion medical Director on +44 (0)20 7486 2300 and provide details of your medical consultant. They will then contact your consultant and request your files which will then be sent to the appropriate centre of excellent for a Medical Second Opinion.

How much does it cost?

As a member of Golsure Personal most costs and services will be free to you. In many cases it will not be necessary to visit the Second Opinion offices, however if the Second Opinion Medical Director believes it necessary, then the cost of the first consultation will be covered. Transportation and accommodation or subsequent consultation will not be covered.
